Why is getting your license important?

First and foremost, it is important to have a driver's license in order to notify law enforcement that you have had the required training and practice to operate a motor vehicle. It also Driving without a license is a "wobbler" offense that can be charged as either a misdemeanor or an infraction. If charged as a misdemeanor, the maximum penalty is six months in jail and a $1,000 court fine. If charged as an infraction, the maximum penalty is a $250 court fine.

How can you get your driver's license?

-If under the age of 17 ½ you MUST take a Driver's Education Course BEFORE you can get your permit. The Drivers Education Course is about 30 hours of classroom instruction.

Orangewood Foundation can reimburse up to $300 for Driving School.

-To get your permit, you must go to the DMV and pass a written test. Study, Study, Study.

-Check online to see what documents you need to bring with you... You don't want to get there and must turn around!

- Before you go, make sure you:
- Have had your permit for at least 6 months (or you are over 18 J)
- Completed your behind-the-wheel training (unless you are over 18)
- Have insurance for the car you'll be driving during the test
- Bring all required documents
- PRACTICE – Looking over shoulder before turning, scanning mirrors, leaving gap in front of you when stopped, etc.

IF OVER 18 YEARS OLD

-No need for Drivers Education Course, but you will still need to get a Learners Permit before you get your Driver's License
